FLEXIBLE COMPLEMENTING SCHEME

3271. SHRI N. GIRI PRASAD : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) whether any review of the Flexible Complementing scheme has been under taken by Government;

(b) whether the said scheme will be extended for promotion of scientists in National Atlas and Thematic Mapping Organisation (NATMO); and

(c) if so, by when the extension thereof will come into effect ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF ATOMIC ENERGY AND SPACE WITH ADDITIONAL CHARGE OF THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (SHRI BHUVNESH CHATURVEDI) : (a) An Inter-Departmental Group consisting of representatives of officers of the Ministry of Finance, Department of Personnel & Training and Department of Science & Technology has been constituted to look into the various aspects of the Flexible Complementing Scheme.

(b) and (c) There is no proposal to extend the scheme to the National Atlas and Thematic Mapping Organisation, Calcutta.

SETTING UP OF BANK TO CONSERVE MEDICINAL AND AROMATIC PLANTS

*3271A. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL :

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) Whether Government have decided to set-up Banks to conserve medicinal and aromatic plants as reported in the Hindustan Times dated 13th December, 1993;

(b) If so, what is the location (state-wise) indicating whether any such Bank is likely to be set-up in Rajasthan and Orissa;

(c) What are the regions of exploration surveys assigned to such Banks indicating plans for development of natural data base, documentation etc.; and

(d) Whether any budgetary provisions have been made during 1993-94 indicating aid|assistance if any expected to be received from the World Bank and other International Financial Institutions, if so, the details thereof.

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF ATOMIC ENERGY AND SPACE WITH ADDITIONAL CHARGE OF THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (SHRI BHUVNESH CHATURVEDI) : (a) Yes Sir.

(b) The Government of India through the Department of Biotechnology, Ministry of Science & Technology have set up three national gene banks to conserve the medicinal and aromatic plants in the country. These gene banks are located at the National Bureau of Plant Genetic Resources (NBPGR), New Delhi; Central Institute of Medicinal and Aromatic Plants (CIMAP), Lucknow; and Tropical Botanical Garden & Research Institute (TBGRI), Trivandrum respectively. There is no plan to set up such banks at present in Rajasthan or Orissa.

*Previously Unstarred Question No. 3305 transferred from 24th December, 1993.

(c) The Gene Bank at TBGRI would concentrate its activity in peninsular India. The NBPGR and CIMAP banks would, between them, cover the other biogeographic regions of the country. All the three gene banks are being equipped with state-of-the art infrastructure including seed and field banks, tissue culture repository, and cryobank. They would carry out not only surveys and explorations of assigned regions, but also collection, characterization, documentation, and development of database so as to conserve the valuable germplasm resources of medicinal and aromatic species. Training of personnel, is an integral part of the banks' activity.

(d) Budgetary provisions have been made for 1993-94. The three gene banks are entirely funded by the government of India, and as of now no international funding is expected.

FINDINGS OF SPACE RESEARCH

3272. SHRI TINDIVANAM G. VENKATRAMAN :
SHRI J. S. RAJU :
SHRI MISA R. GANESAN :

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) in what way space research has provided findings for peaceful purposes in the country; and

(b) by when Government expect favourable findings ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF ATOMIC ENERGY AND SPACE WITH ADDITIONAL CHARGE OF THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (SHRI BHUVNESH CHATURVEDI) : (a) The Space research in the country has resulted in establishment of space based systems for providing services in the areas of communication, meteorology, resource survey and management.

The Indian National Satellite (INSAT) system is providing operational services in the areas such as long distance communication. TV broadcasting radio networking, meteorological data relay, disaster warning and search and rescue.

The Indian Remote Sensing (IRS) satellite systems are providing operational services in areas such as agricultural crop acreage and yield estimation, drought warning and assessment, flood control and damage assessment, land use/land cover mapping for agro-climatic planning, waste-land management, water resources management, ocean/marine resource survey and management, urban development, mineral prospecting, forest resources survey and management etc.

Also, the coutry, over the years through he space research programme has built space capability not only for application in several vital areas of national development benefiting the grass roots of the Indian society, but also has led to development of several high technologies as well as some high calibra Indian industries.

Thus, today Space research has become a vital element of the country's infrastructure development.

(b) Does, not arise.
